11th All Indian Exhibition & Conference for the Tube and Pipe Industries

Industry Overview

The Indian tube and pipe industry is crucial to the nation's economic development, supported by the robust growth in construction, energy, and transportation sectors. India stands as the world's second-largest producer of steel, contributing to a strong domestic market for tubes and pipes with a market size expected to grow at a CAGR of around 6-8% in the coming years. The domestic steel pipe market alone is projected to surpass $15 billion by 2027.

India holds the position of being the third-largest producer and exporter of pipes worldwide, with domestic manufacturers supplying both seamless and welded pipes for varied industrial applications.

Explore Business and Cooperation Opportunities of the Indian Tube Industry

India Steel Pipes and Steel Tubes Market is expected to grow at a CAGR of 6.43% during the forecast period between 2024 and 2030.

Indian Oil and Gas Industry is the world's 3rd largest energy market and 4th largest LNG importer.

The growth of the India Steel Pipes and Steel Tubes Market is primarily driven by the rising demand from the oil & gas industry, growing infrastructure development, increasing disposable incomes, and stringent environmental regulations.

The Indian steel pipe industry is a significant part of the India steel sector, contributing about 8% of India's steel consumption.

Government Initiative - The Indian government formulated the National Steel Policy to promote the growth of the steel industry, of which the tube industry is a significant part.
